2006 Katydoers ~~

Welcome to our Chirper newsletter. We are very proud of our club newsletter and the class will begin receiving copies each month. This will be your space so if you feel like saying, telling, improving, needing something (all within reason, of course) please let me know and I will forward it to our wonderful editor. It can be items of interest such as the recent trip Charles Class and Florence Mahoney took to Italy recently. Or Roger Hemsley's (partner to Charlene McAndrew) return to England because his visa expired but will be returning.

You are coming along beautifully and I have stated to my fellow Katydids that this class is moving right along faster than any class we have been Head Angeling. So please keep it up! You are well into what we call PLUS calls. You have completed all of the essential MAINSTREAM calls. You are now at the level where the new calls you will learn are really FUN!

Yellow Rocks to you all!
Morris & Louise Hosoda, Head Angels

THE PRESIDENT'S CORNER - -

Hi Katydids!

The Installation Brunch went well and all who attended had a good time. I want to express my appreciation for the participation and work done by Louise and Sal Stagnitto as well as Char Pitts. I also want to thank Morris Hosoda for calling a few tips for us after we finished eating.

Our Annual Picnic is coming on Sunday, June 11, at 11:00 a.m. We hope you have already set that day aside and plan on coming. Volunteers will be needed to help set up at 10:00 a.m. and other help will be needed later. Please contact Bob Bennett or me if you can help.

We also need some members to volunteer for one or more of the following positions that are still open this year. Super Square Head, Sheriff, Social chair, and a 2007 Sweet-heart Special Chair. Filling these positions help our Club run more smoothly and makes it more fun for everyone!

~ ~ Lloyd Darknell

We hope everybody had great Easter holidays! We had such a great time, the kids came for one week and we had a lot of fun!

The Line Dance class is getting better and better because we are...smile! Many times I have my problems. Many times I have the right direction and all the other's - WRONG WAY. After Willi's trip to Asia we start with square dancing again.

The weather is starting to be fine and warm. Saturday is the first ride with the Harley. We miss California's streets and the Biker brothers and sisters many times...but I have to admit, riding here is an attraction of another kind. We found a Beergarden, meet many interesting people and...EVERYBODY TALKED ABOUT AMERICA WITH ENTHUSIASM AND EXALTATION.

In front there was a firefighter. He talked about his experiences in New York, the friendship, the adventure and his eyes be in a blaze.

March 20

This evening changed my life and you know why? I will tell about this fantastic project:

Willi saw in the newspaper there is a dinner...normal. Three dishes...normal. In complete darkness...not normal! The waiter is blind...not normal! We ordered tickets per internet. At 7:00 we stand in line.

Got a bag with money to pay all the drinks (...in the darkness? Our faces like a question mark). Then, Sigi, our waiter, came to bring us to the table. We came in the room, believe me...total darkness. At our table 8 other people. In the room over 70 people with the waiter.

I was in panic, my heart like beat a drum. Willi enjoyed every minute. I was holding his hand until...yeah, Sigi ask for the drinks. We ordered wine, Willi paid. Here we are with a carafe. Now to pouring the wine in a glass in the darkness...

The soup...delicious. Willi had meat, I had veggi. Willi and I ask so many question, so how do I know how big the pit meet is...you have to go around with your fork. Sigi, why are you blind? ..... I had grünen (green) star and was careless. I thought to everybody else something like this is happen, but me...no way. Sigi, how old are you...35, and blind since 5 years. I have a lump in my throat...and tears in my eyes. Sigi, are you married? Yeah and my wife of 28 years is blind, too. She has diabetes.

The only thing I don't like is full volume like in this hall. Sigi told me when people are afraid they are louder than normal. I talked for a moment to my neighbor...but not for long. He cried for Sigi...no, no, not my fault...no, no, my fork was not in his hand, he panicked so hard, he had to be outside.

Sigi ask, "Hey, Curly, what time do you think it is?" I answered with "9:00 PM?" "No, it is 10:00 PM." Whoa! In the darkness there is no time feeling. An entertainer came. I was hoping his show is with the light on...no way.

11:00 PM...good food, good show, thankful...Sigi brought us to the light. Never in my life I was so happy to see.

Face it. Draw the moral...when you can't see you feel different, in the truest sense...eat, hear, test.

You can go to this place only for a few months. I want this for always because I think that many people learn to handle people with a handicap easier.

Oh, by the way, we have a regular contact per e-mail with Sigi...yeah, this is possibility.

April 29

The weather is fine. It is warm and the people are happy. All around you see many tables and chairs outside. So the pedestrian zone is full of life.

We got a mail from friends. We met them a year ago in Spain while on vacation. The friends wrote "Life is so short, so please visit us."

We took a trip to the Black Forest, close to Switzerland. It was absolutely wonderful – a two hour drive. This area has a special flair; the mountains and green grasses - sheer nature.

Our friends surprised us with an invitation for a big party for people over 30...the party theme -- 30+. We had a wonderful coffetalk with Sonja home made cake (delicious) and both grandkids came. They made us feel like at home. All dressed up, we started at 7 PM to the party. We felt the kids want to go with us ...no way. This is a party for teenagers up to 30!

A big hall, over 700 people and live music - from the Rolling Stones...the Beatles...Eagles...Beach Boys...Elvis - - and all the songs we knew! We danced, we sang - it was amazing. Willi's hair is like Elvis's, my hair with a ponytail, petticoat, red ruby lips - mine not Willi's .....ah, I feel like 17 again. We came home early in the morning with shoes in our hands, flowers in our hair ...what hair???? It is very interesting - all the songs, except for one song, were in English. I can tell you, try this...you can do it at home too. The oldies bring back all the good memories...and share them with friends - it makes you feel like Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers.

After a great weekend, we are back to normal.....now, I have a back problem...the twister dance? I have weak knees .. the rock and roll? No, no - just kidding. The only way I get weak knees is when my hubby comes back home.

Hugs,

Curly

SUNSHINE REPORT

In April the Katydids helped celebrate birthdays with cards to Nicki Brookwell, April 14; Mackey Lunsford, April 21; Louise Stagnitto, April 21; Betty Benevento, April 25; and Louise Hosoda, April 29. Again, Happy Birthday to all of you.

We sent cards to our five Anniversary couples in April: Morris & Louise Hosoda, April 5; Jim & JoAnn Osborne, April 7; Sal & Louise Stagnitto, April 7; Lee & Mackey Lunsford, April 14; Robb & Gayle Moore, April 16. Of these we had two celebrating their 50th: Lee & Mackey Lunsford, and Sal & Louise Stagnitto. We send our best wishes to all our Anniversary couples.

Congratulations and best wishes to Lloyd & Maxine Darknell on their recent marriage. A Wedding card was sent to our President and his now First Lady.

We sent get well cards and wishes this month to Kathy Shaney who is still recuperating with her broken leg. I recently talked to her and I am sure she would appreciate cards. A card was also sent to Bill Ferrill, a past member of the Katydids, who had a bad fall. I am pleased to say he has no broken bones but he is very sore and bruised. He and Sandy were to be at our Fri. April 28 Katydids dance but I have been told that they had to change their plans due to Bill's fall. We hope they will make it at a later date and Bill will be feeling better soon. ~ ~ Marilyn Shaver, Chaplain

Katydoers are Doing Just Great!

In all our years being your Head Angels, I don't believe we have had a class that has advanced so rapidly as our current class. It is still April (as I write this) and they have been introduced to PEEL OFF, LINEAR CYCLE, COORDINATE, FOLLOW YOUR NEIGHBOR, and DIAMOND CIRCULATE, all Plus calls. Keep it up class and attending classes of other club nights and Beginner Hoedowns will certainly help. It is a pleasure to work with such a fine group.

Once again, I must thank the Katydids who arrive early to help out. Remember that you are all Angels (in my book you are!), besides the class is at a level that many of us can use to reinvigorate our dancing skills.

GREETINGS FROM SANDY ~ ~

Boo-hoo, I'm still missing all of you. Some of you may have heard through the grapevine that we had to completely cancel our trip. While preparing the van for the drive across America, Bill was up on the ladder checking for bird nests against the A/C unit on the van roof. Sure enough there was a nest there. As Bill swooshed it unceremoniously off the roof, he suddenly noticed a wasp's nest with occupants rushing out to investigate the commotion. Bill instinctively took a step back...right off the ladder.

He's doing lots better, miraculously no broken bones, and we're thankful every day he's OK. But as you can imagine, being OK is not necessarily synonymous with being able to drive across America. He only used the crutches a couple days at first. Silly me. I had encouraged him to get rid of the crutches years ago. Why keep them? We weren't ever going to need them again. So it just goes to prove you should save everything.

The grandkids came over to our house the very next day after the accident. I didn't want to disappoint the kids, and the visit had been prearranged so I could see them once more before our month long trip. The 3 year old made instant pudding with a whisk, we poured it into fancy dessert dishes, and we were just discussing the whip cream and 4 cherries on top of his designer dessert, when thump, thump, thump, Limpy LaRue hobbled into the kitchen purposefully on his crutches. Bill wanted to make sure one of those puddings was for him. I stand amazed at the power of motivation.

Anyhow, Bill's back to driving, walking, and never stopped eating, so we're making lots of progress. He's not back to running or square dancing, yet, so hopefully that will be a turning point soon in our future.

We hope all y'all had a wonderful Easter. We attended a sunrise service and for the first time in 3 years there actually was a stunning light show to reward the early morning celebrants. Have I mentioned previously that it rains a lot here?

I've been using my unexpected down time to get caught up with my photo albums. It's perplexing how time suddenly rushed by after I'd assembled those first easy Gramma Brag Books 3 years ago. I attended lots of scrapbooking classes in San Jose in past years and one of the key principles is about success. Don't start with the newborn pictures and try to catch up chronologically. Start with the birthday party last month. I assembled two albums in one week, no small feat. I also took classes on creating 10 minute layouts, so that's my goal - to speed up.

I've also been occasionally babysitting a sweet little Down Syndrome baby. She is recovering from recent open heart surgery, so soon it should be easier to pick her up, feed her, bounce her around, and play with her. Her numerous medical problems have necessitated tube feedings, suctioning, breathing treatments, home therapy visits, and numerous doc appointments. The hospital equipment that is attached to that child has been formidable and daunting. It was such a thrill when she started smiling a couple months ago. Spending time with this little angel has been intensely energizing. Last week I held her for an afternoon while her parents painted their living room and re-covered valances.

Our yard transformed overnight from stark, leafless trunks and branches to a lush, green, leafy surrounding wall. We're back in our secluded forest again.

I recommend the new Robin Williams movie, RV, to all of you. It's very, very funny and there aren't enough of these good family movies available.

Spring's here and in between huge storms, our weather's been 80 degrees. Don't let that keep you away. y'all come see us! Hey, don't let those tornados keep you from coming to see us. We're OK. It was nervewracking to be on tornado alerts prior to those last couple of storms. The radio dedicated hours to Tornado Alert Status Reports and it was unnerving hearing our county named in the alert standbys. The first storm caught us in the car driving blind in pitch dark, wild winds, and sheets of rain. I aged 10 years that night. We were just 15 minutes from home, but it took longer, because we had to stop a few times. That was the worst storm in our area since 1957, but the brunt of the damage was in west Tennessee. Five days later we were on Tornado Alert again, but only saw a little rain before it blew west. Mid-Tennessee caught the worst of that one. One of my friends told me her cousin's house in Hendersonville (the location of Johnny Cash's house) was completely destroyed, but I know someone else up there who had no damage in her neighborhood at all. Hendersonville is located in far northeast Tennessee. A lot of the Nashville Grand Ol' Opry stars have mansions there. The thunder and lightning storms are frequent here and they are very intimidating, sometimes lasting all night. Sometimes we get thunder and lightning with no rain, because of the heat and air currents. People here think nothing of all this. They can't understand how anyone could live in California with the constant threat of earthquakes. Amazing, huh? Y'all be good. We miss you all.

~~ Sandy Ferrill
